Good Morning Everyone,

We are currently processing a FOIA request from Hunton & Williams for all documents since January 1, 2014 related to the Cargill Redwood City Plant Site (also known as the "Saltworks" project). OEI has already conducted Outlook searches for everyone, so you do not need to search your Outlook files for responsive documents.

If you have any responsive documents that cannot be found in Outlook, please send them to me as soon as possible.

The FOIA request is attached for your reference. The requestor has agreed to phased release of documents, with the final set of documents to be provided by August 11.

Please give me a call if you have any questions.

Regards,
Melissa
